

Oglebay's Good Zoo

2012 Reciprocity Policy for Visiting Members

Admission Benefit:

The Good Zoo will extend discounted admission to members of all facilities listed on the 2012 Reciprocal Zoo list. The discount amount extended is determined by the agreement made between the Good Zoo and the reciprocal facility and can vary by institution.

Admission benefit will be extended to the following membership categories:

- ✓ Individual – one named adult
- ✓ Family – 2 named adults and children under age 21 living in a single dwelling.
- ✓ Grandparents – 2 named adults and grandchildren under age 21 up to 6.
- ✓ Higher level memberships will be admitted under our “Family” definition.

Note: Additional adults or children and guests will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.

Reciprocity Guidelines:

- ✓ Visiting members MUST present a current membership card and photo identification to receive the admission benefit. (If a member has lost their card, it is his/her responsibility to have their facility notify us in advance of their visit or visiting members will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.
- ✓ The Good Zoo will not extend free or reduced admission to any adult whose name does not appear on the membership card. They will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.
- ✓ For membership cards listing 3 or more adults (including nannies or kid keepers), the Good Zoo will extend free or reduced admission to only 2 of the adults per visit. Additional adults will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.
- ✓ Guest passes, membership guest privileges, and “Guest of” cards will not be honored for reciprocal admission. Guests will be asked to pay the daily admission fee.
- ✓ Temporary membership cards must have member’s name, membership level, and expiration date to receive the reciprocation benefit.
- ✓ Reciprocal facilities, guidelines, and benefits are subject to change without notice.

Restrictions:

- ✓ Reciprocal admission does not apply to special events or group rates.
